

Diploma in Information Technology

Professionally recognized qualification in Information Technology available for both Full-Time and Part-Time students using the latest computer technology. We offer an intensive Learning Programme from Foundation to Advanced Levels. The Commerce and Computer College of South Africa incorporates comprehensive Theory and Practical competencies that are aligned with principles of the NQF. The Diploma in Information Technology is established and assessed with regards to those outcomes required by the ITC sector.

Campus for delivering the Qualification:

384/386 West Street, Durban, 4001

SAQA Qualification ID: 82086

Credits: 360 (120 per year)

Delivery Mode: Instructor Led

Entry Requirement: NSC / NC(V) Level 4 (See Minimum Admission Requirements)

RPL: Available upon written request

NQF Level: 6

Duration: 3 years

Language Policy: English

Accrediting Body: CHE (Council of Higher Education)

Year One

- LAC111 – Business English
- BUS112 – Business Numeracy
- ITS113 – Information Technology Skills
- PRO1A – Programming 1A

Semester I

- PAT121 – Fundamentals of PC Hardware
- SYS122 – Systems Software
- OOP123 – Fundamentals of Object-Oriented Analysis and Design
- PRO1B – Programming 1B

Semester II

Year Two

- BIS211 – Business Information Systems
- SAD212 – Systems Analysis and Design
- PRO2A – Programming 2A
- DBS213 – Database Management Systems I

Semester I

- PRO2B – Programming 2B
- DBS221 – Database Management Systems II
- MPJ223 – Mini Project

Semester II

Year Three

- EMT311 – New and Emerging Technologies
- SEE312 – Software Engineering
- PRO3A – Programming 3A

Semester I

- OSP321 – Open Source Development
- ECC322 – eCommerce
- PRO3B – Programming 3B (WIL)

Semester II

